

Civil Litigation Lawyers Moose Jaw Saskatchewan

Civil Litigation Lawyers Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - Areas like for example abuse of dominant position, mergers and acquisitions, competitor agreement, price maintenance, tied selling, refusal to deal, together with several anti-competitive trade practices are all provided for within the Competition Act. As well, practices including bid rigging, conspiracies, and deceptive marketing practices are prohibited.

Our experience firm has had extensive knowledge regarding commercial clients and along with the Commissioner of the Competition Act. This even comprises the appearances before the Competition Tribunal and the Federal Court. We negotiate planned mergers and acquisitions with the Competition Bureau on behalf of our clients and have even participated in numerous court cases about anti-competitive practice accusations. Our company has the experience and knowledge necessary to make certain our clients have up-to-date details about compliance concerns.