

Business Lawyer Moose Jaw Saskatchewan

Business Lawyer Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - We provide a variety of services to various financial institutions, financing and leasing companies, and other non-bank lenders including structuring and documenting various loan transactions. These transactions consist of lines of credit, term loans, asset-based loans, revolving credit facilities, lease financings, subordinated financings, motion picture financings, and real estate development financings.

Our business clients likewise rely on us to help them in negotiating, arranging, and obtaining credit facilities.

Our lawyers are really familiar with public sector financing and with assistance programs and structures. They have vast knowledge with industrial development transactions, industrial revenue bond issuances, state and local development agency financings and programs.

Additionally, our lawyers help lenders and borrowers with work-outs and loan restructurings.