

Criminal Law Firms Moose Jaw Saskatchewan

Criminal Law Firms Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - It is really imperative that each one of our clients maintain their intellectual property and their rights behind it. Our aim is to quickly and efficiently handle the misuse and misappropriation of the intellectual property which is owned by our clients. We provide guidance in circumstances dealing with the leak of confidential information, trade secrets, registered designs, copyright, trademarks and patents. Additionally, we even handle the anti-piracy problems, personality rights, commercial disputes and defamation making use of litigation.

Our company and lawyers are specifically well-versed in patent problems, especially in the fields of telecommunication, mechanical and pharmaceutical sectors. The numerous copyright violations from internet use, comprising software, music, television and artwork rights which we will work through fast so as to help you prevent more exploitation. Trademark and competition issues are normally dealt with utilizing litigation.

Our firm's skill about intellectual property fused with the skills of our well-seasoned litigation lawyers makes for a formidable combination. Our clients can depend on us to act for them at all levels of the international tribunals as well as Canadian courts.

Our company has several highly knowledgeable solicitors, and trademark and patent agents, who work closely with our property litigators. As a firm, we have commercial expertise in technology transactions. This makes certain we have an extra set of skills that is useful should a case get settled previous to going to trial. The help that we give our clients is time-efficient, creative, and above all, effective.

Litigation is often not the only means to attain our clients' objectives. If there is an alternative way that is more cost effective and efficient then we choose that road. The main goal is to reach our clients' goals as quickly and painlessly as possible.