

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Personal Injury

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Personal Injury - Personal injuries can cause a time which can be confusing and overwhelming. Your personal life could get overturned financially, physically and emotionally. We have trusted and experienced advisors you can always count upon. Our senior law clerk and personal injury lawyer have the specialized legal experience to be able to provide you with expert suggestion and representation. We can help you to understand the legislation as it applies to your case, and we would take the time to talk about all of your alternatives. We will be here from start to finish of the personal injury legal process.

Your first consultation with a knowledgeable personal injury lawyer will be provided free of charge. If we accept your case on a "contingency fee" basis, you may not have to pay an initial retainer fee. In these circumstances, you will pay nothing in legal fees if we are unable to acquire compensation for you. We will be given a percentage of the settlement if we are successful in obtaining compensation. We will make certain that you know all the details of the retainer agreement before signing.

To be able to prevent your rights from expiring, you have to phone us as soon as possible following your injury. The specific time periods within which you must bring your claim could differ from a few days to two years.

We have skill in the following personal injury fields: dog bites and animal attacks, motor vehicle accidents; slip and fall injuries; long-term disability claims; and pension plan appeals.

Personal injury cases are settled out of court. The goal of our company is to offer effective negotiation, while working towards avoiding costly court procedures. If it does become necessary, we have skilled litigators who will represent you before all levels of the courts.
