

Copyright Lawyer Moose Jaw Saskatchewan

Copyright Lawyer Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - If there are not sufficient systems to lessen risks are not in place, the complex web of global regulations and laws governing competitive conduct in today's world, can leave businesses facing various corporate compliance issues. The many consequences could consist of hefty fines for alleged price fixing, and jail time for those individuals whose businesses have violated antitrust laws. Litigation by private individuals, like class action lawsuits, can result in settlements or damage awards amounting to millions of dollars. Our firm gives business clients practical advice and effective representation in order to help them establish corporate compliance systems in order to maximize their ability to compete legally and effectively. Our competition/antitrust lawyers give professional counsel concerning complicated problems which can negatively impact a company's operations and ability to survive.

Our lawyers are experienced and knowledgeable in competition and antitrust law, marketing and advertising law. Our lawyers are usually requested to speak and write concerning competition law topics for business, academic and legal audiences. We have experience in price fixing investigations, mergers, product pricing, packaging, labeling, distribution and advertising issues. Our litigators have acted for clients before the courts, the Canadian International Trade Tribunal and the Competition Tribunal. Our lawyers draw upon various members throughout our business for knowledge in trade remedies, intellectual property, commercial and franchising issues associated with product distribution. We even assist in the defence of criminal and quasi-criminal allegations.