

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Corporate Lawyer

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Corporate Lawyer - Our firm's Commercial and Corporate law practitioners offer legal services to a wide variety of commercial and corporate clients, comprising small business proprietors, co-operatives, chartered banks, credit unions, insurance and trust companies, multi-national corporations and governmental agencies.

We offer legal assistance in all aspects of commercial activity in the public and private business sectors throughout the country and all over the globe.

We arrange, advise on, and negotiate mergers and acquisitions, private and public financing as well as corporate restructuring. We have skill in securities law matters, including intellectual property and technology law, public and private offerings of securities, partnership law, competition law and foreign investment. Our lawyers have extensive experience with all aspects of business dealings, whether global or local in scope, like for example sales of goods and services, distributorships, leases, trade and franchises law.