

Impaired Driving Moose Jaw Saskatchewan

Impaired Driving Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - Patents are often the most valuable assets which a company could have. It is essential that the patent portfolio is maintained and secured in order to make certain that the company is able to continue to succeed and even expand.

As one of the largest and respective patent teams within the country, we have extensive knowledge in procuring patents and protecting them. Also, we assist clients leverage patent problems with skill and efficiency.

Our team consists of various professionals, such as patent agents, technical consultants and patent lawyers. Several of our technical consultants even have a Ph.D in either a scientific or engineering discipline. A few examples of the fields wherein we have knowledge are aerospace, chemical, civil, biochemical, computer science, electrical, metallurgy and material science, industrial, biochemistry, mechanical, biotechnology, biomechanics, food science, chemistry, genetics, endocrinology, life sciences, immunology, microbiology, neuropsychology, neurophysiology, molecular/cellular biology, organic chemistry, pharmacology, physiology, physics and toxicology.

The combination of acute business acumen along with our extensive variety of technical skills enables us to be able to provide a comprehensive understanding of an assortment of technical complexities. Our expertise and experience enables our clients to achieve optimal patent asset value. We are here to offer valuable service and advice concerning licensing agreements and the negotiation of technology transfer as well as the enforcement of intellectual property rights.