

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Tax Lawyers

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Tax Lawyers - Our Tax Planning and Dispute Resolution Group offer practical and innovative tax planning solutions. In today's complicated tax environment, good tax advice is important for both businesses and individuals. Nearly each aspect of daily life involves some type of tax consideration, affecting both personal and business decision making. Whether you are selling or buying a company, dealing with matrimonial property dispute, estate planning, issuing securities, planning charitable donations or organizing a charity, sound tax recommendation is vital for long-term success in life.

Our firm offers advice and services associated to nearly all aspects of mergers and acquisitions, corporate tax planning, wills and estate planning, corporate finance, divestitures, matrimonial property settlements and corporate reorganizations. We have many clients that consist of joint ventures, individuals, corporations, limited and general partnerships, as well as various organizations and businesses. Our professionals within the field of tax law are recognized experts within the field and are regularly invited to make presentations at tax law conferences.

Within Corporate Tax Planning, our tax team provides tax strategies for mergers and acquisitions, transfer pricing agreements, asset transfers, wind-ups, preferred and common share offerings, joint ventures, partnerships as well as other business matters. We also obtain advance pricing agreements, technical rulings and interpretations. Our lawyers provide value-based, knowledgeable, priority assistance.

Within the sphere of Resource Taxation, we provide mineral royalties and tax planning recommendation concerning major resource developments, like for example oil and gas, agriculture, mining along with pulp and paper.

To reach resolution of tax disputes, we offer sound recommendation on income tax, sales tax, tax objections and audits. If needed, our tax litigators will represent clients before the courts.

We assist with Employment Compensation and Benefits by advising on all issues associated to benefits and compensation law and pensions.

Wills and Estate Planning assistance are offered for business owners, individuals and professionals, consisting of preparation of wills and estate planning, estate freezes and income splitting. We help in the reorganization of closely held corporations.
