

Best Divorce Lawyer in Moose Jaw Saskatchewan

Best Divorce Lawyer in Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - When planning our estate there are several things which you have to take into account beyond just a Last Will and Testament. Deferring and reducing taxes, choosing the beneficiary of your life insurance benefits, pension plans, homes, businesses, and practices are all things that you must take into account. Our office is skilled in various issues concerning wills and estates and is capable of giving valuable and efficient estate planning advice.

Included in the more comprehensive estate plans are the preparations for possible illness because this can be a rather difficult issue. Our seasoned lawyers gives suggestion to our clients in the preparation of their Enduring Power of Attorney, Personal Directive, and Dependent Adult Applications.

We are skilled in the matters of the succession of family businesses and charitable giving. Several of our lawyers frequently publish articles and attend lectures related to estate planning.

We also specialize in probate and estate litigation in the fields of Dependent Relief Act Application, challenging Wills, Interstate Succession Act Issues, matrimonial property issues, same sex relationships and adult interdependent relationships.