

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Family Lawyer

Moose Jaw Saskatchewan Family Lawyer - When your common-law relationship or marriage dissolves, many issues can take place. It is vital that you retain sound legal counsel and that you fully know the impact that your potential choices may have on your future. Our company provides expert advice and counsel on such problems as access, custody, property and pension division, debts and business property division. Our office is dedicated to providing you with the essential legal services you require to navigate through the family law process effectively and fast.

Which parent would your child live? When will the kid or children see the parent without custodial rights? Who is accountable for financially support? Who will keep the matrimonial house? Who will be responsible for paying any debts incurred through the marriage? Moreover, if you have a family business, how will the business assets be divided?

Here at our firm, we could help you in the preparation of the Separation Agreement, that gives comprehensive and clear answers to such questions. To be able to enable you to concentrate on your new life, a formal agreement is suggested. This Separation Agreement, as soon as finalized, is a binding agreement on both parties.

This agreement could be included into the final Divorce Order. An uncontested divorce happens if you and your spouse agree to divorce and have agreement concerning all major issues. An uncontested divorce could proceed quickly through a three-part application procedure. Our task is to help you in the preparation of all required papers and to file them quickly so that you can continue with your life.

When you and your spouse cannot agree about matters, we call this a contested divorce. Such matters can be dealt with through settlement conferences, court proceedings, informal negotiations between parties and/or trials. Our lawyers will assist you through all phases of the court procedure. Our goal is to be able to protect your rights and advocate for the best interests of you and your family.

The break up of a common-law relationship needs a different procedure about custody, support, pension division and property division matters. Our office could help you with all matters connected to the termination of a common-law relationship.
