

Divorce in Moose Jaw Saskatchewan

Divorce in Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - Our company has amongst the largest municipal and planning law departments in the nation. Our department's specialized lawyers and planners practice exclusively in matters relating to municipal law, development law and land use planning.

We assist, advice and represent a lot of developers, landowners, public interest groups and financial institutions. In matters associated to municipal law, we represent municipalities in municipal finance and restructuring deals, and we assist with by-law drafting and negotiating various types of agreements.

We act on behalf of our clients before the courts, various land-use tribunals, regional and local councils, committees of adjustment and land division committees.