Real Estate Lawyers in Moose Jaw Saskatchewan - In the fields of commercial leasing and sale, purchasing and financing, development projects as well as local government approvals, our company has built a reputation in the industry.

Our firm's client base comprises both local and international clients. These include borrowers and lenders, educational institutions, contractors, co-operatives, local and international developers, local governments, forestry, hospitals, purchasers and vendors, partnerships and other investment syndications, managers, manufacturers, real estate agents, and retail. We have a great deal of skill working on various projects comprising office work and industrial centers to residential estates and shopping centers.

Several cities count on our lawyers as their principle advisors. We offer recommendation regarding the priorities and options the city has about local government regulations of real estate expansion. The information we provide is vital to the negotiations between our client and the local government.

Our group will consult with other lawyers in the Financial Services, First nations, Tax groups and Environmental to make certain we are offering accurate recommendation. If any disagreements or disputes occur during the proceedings, we have a selection of arbitration, litigation and mediation lawyers obtainable to support our clients.

Many of the lawyers who work for our group have received a number of prestigious awards, both nationally and locally. Accuracy, quality and efficiency are a few of the qualities which represent our group. We make use of all of the resources available to us to ensure our clients have all of the information and support they need to take advantage of the real estate market.
